

Souby Boski

Souby Boski has been an Art teacher in the CT public schools and Adjunct Professor of Art at Naugatuck Valley Community College. Since 2004, she has been teaching painting classes and workshops at area art education venues in CT, MA and FL.

Education

BA in Art Education from Stetson University and a MALS in Art from Wesleyan University. She has studied painting with nationally recognized artists and teachers, Eric Aho, Ira Barkoff, Lois Dodd and Ruth Miller.

Selected Exhibitions

“Works on Paper Invitational” Blue Mountain Gallery, New York City

“Sphere of Influence: Ira Barkoff & the Washington Art Association”,
Mattatuck Museum, Waterbury, CT

“Winter Wonders”, Gallery 19, Essex, CT

“PAINT: A National Juried Exhibition”, Hera Gallery, Wakefield, RI
Liz Afif Fine Art, Philadelphia, PA

“Spectrum 2013”, New Canaan, CT– 1st prize painting
A.I.R. Gallery, Brooklyn, NY

Behnke Doherty Gallery, Washington Depot, CT

Minor Memorial Gallery, Roxbury, CT

Higgins Gallery, Western Connecticut State University

Behnke Doherty Gallery, Washington Depot, CT

Lenox Invitational Exhibit, Lenox MA

White Silo Gallery, Sherman CT